Message from the Guest Editors

Given the global declarations of climate emergency and public calls for sustainability, timely solutions for existing policies and practices are needed. This Special Issue of Sustainability aims to gather new inter- and multi-disciplinary solutions to the challenges of sustainable public procurement, sustainable corporate behavior, and sustainable changes to higher education curricula. As timely actions require coherent sustainability policies, this Special Issue aims to gather the newest sustainable developments in three distinct but correlated sectors:

1. Sustainable public procurement
2. Sustainable corporate practices
3. Sustainable changes to higher education curricula

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international Open Access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. The journal publishes original research articles, reviews, conference proceedings (peer-reviewed full articles) and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges \(APC\) paid by authors or their institutions.

High visibility: indexed by the Science Citation Index Expanded and Social Sciences Citation Index (Web of Science), as well as Scopus and other databases.

Rapid Publication: manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision provided to authors approximately 17 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 3.6 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the second half of 2019).
