

Online Conference

“Connecting Co-Creation and Climate Action –
How people can have an impact on climate adaptation and mitigation”

- When? Wednesday, May 22nd 2019
10 am – 2 pm (CEST/Brussels time)
- Where? Join ONLINE after registration via e-mail to hannah.hoff@uni-vechta.de
- Why? Learn from good practice examples &
discuss with international experts!

Online Conference

“Connecting Co-Creation and Climate Action –
How people can have an impact on climate adaptation and mitigation”

Detailed Program

- Introductory talk
Norbert Steinhaus, TeRRIFICA project coordinator, Bonn Science Shop (WILA Bonn)
- Expert talk: „Co-creation – what, how, and why? Reflecting on the RESIN project”
Dr. Angela Connelly, School of Environment, Education and Development, University of Manchester, Great Britain
- Good practice examples from the six pilot regions
 - Strengthening the Covenant of Mayors Movement in Belarus (StrongCoM project) –
Natallia Andreyenka, NGO “Ecopartnership”, Belarus
 - On-farm crop diversity management as a lever for Climate Change mitigation and adaptation: lessons from 15 years of participatory research –
Isabelle Goldringer, French National Institute for Agricultural Research, France
 - Climate adaptation, demographic change & co. - Experiences from co-creative and collaborative projects in the North West of Germany – Ernst Schäfer, Working group for environmental and regional planning and research (ARSU GmbH), Germany
 - The Educational Antismog Network –
Syliwa Ciesiółka, Poznan Metropolis Association, Poland
 - University of Belgrade Faculty of Architecture in between Initiatives and Educational projects dealing with climate change: 2014 till today – Dr. Ratka Colic and Aleksandra Djordjevic, Faculty of Architecture, University of Belgrade, Serbia
 - Sharing the future! Environmental education programme –
Ana Romero, Metropolitan Area of Barcelona (AMB), Spain
- In-depth discussion: Six parallel discussion rounds
- Closing remarks: Gathering the learning outcomes